*The Chili Cook Off will be held Saturday, January 25, 2020 from 3:00 p.m.—6:30 p.m. in the Great Rooms of the Community Center.

*Chili is defined as any kind of spicy, stew-like dish cooked with chili peppers, meat (optional) and/or beans (optional) Various other spices including chili powder and ingredients may be added. Complete commercial chili mixes are not permitted nor is canned chili allowed.

*Chili must be cooked before arriving at the event. Check –in and set up for the event will start at 1:30 p.m. (Doors open at 2:30p.m.) Tasting begins at 3:00 p.m.

*Please provide at least 1 Gallon of chili for the tasting. Consider bringing extra—we ran out last year!

*Please bring prepared chili in a crockpot to keep hot throughout the event. Please bring an extension cord.

*You are responsible for all cooking utensils, serving chili and cleaning up of your area. Appearance is everything– feel free to decorate your table.

*Please have a display listing your ingredients, we will be passing out chili’s noting mild, medium, hot.

*Winners will be based on amount of coins collected at your table.

*Voting ends at 6:00 p.m. Winners announced immediately.

*Bragging rights for the year!

*Tell your friends and family about the event—the more people you invite the better chance of winning you will have!

*Most of all—have fun and support your local library!!
